January 1, 2008

Norfolk - The Law firm of Taylor and Walker, P.C. of Norfolk recently expanded their Richmond Office with the acquisition of Taylor, Hazen & Kauffman, PLC of Richmond. James E. Brydges, Jr., Managing Shareholder of Taylor & Walker, P.C. is excited about the merger. "We are happy to welcome Taylor, Hazen & Kauffman to our firm. They bring a wealth of experience to our practice and broaden the services we offer our clients."

Taylor & Walker, P.C. in Norfolk, was originally formed in 1974 by J. Hume Taylor, Jr. and William C. Walker as a general practice law firm with an emphasis on civil litigation generally, and insurance defense work in particular. They have had a Richmond Office for 10 years.

Taylor, Hazen & Kauffman originated from a partnership formed in 1946 between B. Gary Blake and G. Thomas Taylor. James Kauffman, principal, states, "This is a unique opportunity to expand and improve the legal representation of the clients served by both firms."

The Richmond office has recently moved into new, expanded facilities at 6800 Paragon Place, Suite 626, Richmond VA 23230.
