

TAYLOR AND WALKER P.C.

PRESS RELEASE

James E. Brydges, Jr., to speak at Virginia Association of Defense Attorneys Annual Meeting in Williamsburg.

July 12, 2006

Williamsburg - Taylor & Walker partner James E. Brydges, Jr., will address the Virginia Association of Defense Attorneys Annual Meeting in October on the subject of the bar of the exclusivity provision of the Virginia Workers Compensation Act to third party tort claims by injured workers. Mr. Brydges recently won a major traumatic brain injury case on a plea of the workers compensation bar. The VADA is an 800 plus member organization whose mission is to assist Virginia attorneys in the professional and ethical representation of their clients in civil litigation through education, communication and fellowship. Mr. Brydges is a former president of the association.
