PRESS RELEASE

Taylor & Walker partner Jim McCaa recovers $41,000 for insurance carrier against installer of dishwasher in homeowner's water damage claim.

Norfolk - Jim McCaa recovers $41,000 for insurance carrier against installer of dishwasher in homeowner's water damage claim. Plumbing and engineering experts determined that the water supply hose to the dishwasher was improperly attached to the dishwasher by the installing plumber, allowing the normal and ordinary fluctuating city water pressure to cause the hose to "blow out" of its fitting to the dishwasher, allowing free flowing water to flood the new home.
